

Adriana Friedmann

PhD in Anthropology, Master in Education and Pedagogue.

Specialist, teacher university, lecturer, researcher, activist and national and international consultant of NGOs, foundations, secretaries, schools, etc. in childhood topics, research with children, play and art spaces and expressive languages, for the last forty years.

Creator and coordinator of NEPSID - Nucleus of Studies and Research in Symbolism, Childhood and Development) - www.nepsid.com.br.

Creator and leader of Brazilian Childhood Map - www.facebook.com/mapainfanciabrasileira

Author of several books and articles in the area, among them: "Listening and watching children: inspiring processes for educators", "Child protagonism", "Who is listening", "Children's languages and cultures", "History of Sociology and the Anthropology of Childhood, "" The Anthropological Look Inside Childhood, "The Child's Development Through Play" and "The Art of Playing". Available at <https://goo.gl/gfpL12> and at <https://edutecno.academia.edu/AdrianaFriedmann>.

Currículo Lattes - <http://lattes.cnpq.br/1385910160530871>